PRICE FIVE CENTS

PUMPKINS, MUSH AND CIDER BRING FALL TO MARKET

The Farmers Mart began to assume an "autumn look" this morning as pumpkins and mush went on sale for the first time, cider was available in larger quantities than previously and later varieties of apples began to nudge out the earlier types.

Pumpkins were selling at from 10 to 20 cents apiece, depending on size. Cider was 35 cents a half gallon, 65 cents a gallon and mush was 25 cents a pan.

Apple prices continued to range over a wide scale depending on variety and quality, with prices quoted anywhere from 30 to 60 cents a half peck. The half bushel price ran from $1.25 to $2 and bushel prices were mostly $3 to $4.

Eggs Come Down
Egg prices lowered slightly from the high of a week ago. The top quotation was 75 cents a dozen for the very large size eggs, down 5 cents from the 80 cents a dozen figure of last week. On down the scale prices ranged 50, 55, 65 to 70 cents, depending on size.

Peppers, at generally two for five a week ago, were varied in price today with many being sold at 10 cents a dozen, some at four for five cents and some higher.

There was still some corn on the market, with the price range of 30 to 40 cents a dozen remaining constant with last week. Peaches, late varieties, and just about the last for the market, were still selling at 25 cents a quart box, 45 cents a half peck.

Potatoes were 25 cents a quarter peck, 45 a half peck; sweet potatoes continued to sell at 30 cents a box; cabbage was five to 15 cents a head, depending on size; squash ran from two to 15 cents to 10 cents apiece; tomatoes were 20 to 25 cents a quart, generally $1.25 a half bushel.

Many Other Offerings
Turnips were 20 cents a box; onions, 20 cents a box; egg plants, five and ten cents apiece; endive, 10 cents a bunch; red beets, 10 cents a bunch; there were even some green beans at 20 cents a quart box.

Chickens remained at 60 cents a pound; capons were 65 cents a pound; butter ranged from 70 to 75 cents a pound.

Some pears were available at $1 a half bushel and some noddies were on sale at 25 cents a half-pound.

Flowers were selling from 10 to 50 cents a bunch; bread was 20 cents a loaf; cookies, 25 cents a dozen; pies 15 to 45 cents apiece depending on size; rolls, 15 cents a dozen; cakes, $1 apiece; and jellies, 20 to 25 cents a half pint.

Retired Greek General Leaves

GENERAL PATSAS

Lieut. General John Patsas, of the Greek Army, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Lazos, Water St., left Gettysburg today for Washington. Later he will go to New York from where he will sail for his native Athens, Greece.

General Patsas, 58, has retired after 34 years service in the Greek Army. He is a graduate of Greece's "West Point" and rose to his rank of three-star general during service in two world wars and also active service fighting the red guerrillas after the recent world war.

He is the recipient of 15 decorations from foreign countries.

He is married and has one daughter, 18. His grandfather was a general in the Greek Army in 1821. His father, also a general in the Greek Army, served 40 years before retiring. He has since died. General Patsas and his father have a combined Army service of 74 years.

General Patsas and Mr. Lazos are natives of the same town, Neohorion Naftaktis.

Here And There News Collected At Random

The eighth annual celebration of Pennsylvania Week, October 12-18, occurs at a time when our state and nation are justified in celebrating the greatest industrial achievement in recorded history.

During the years succeeding the Second World War, the American people have contributed billions of dollars in products and treasure to the rebuilding of a war-ravished world. We have assisted in the reconstruction of Europe and Japan with gifts of money and goods and with the services of our young men and women to an extent beyond anything ever known before in friendly relations among the peoples of the world. While pouring out these gifts to insure that peace may be maintained, we have been compelled to fight a desperate war in a distant land, and to strengthen our own defenses as (Continued on Page 7)

ESSAY CONTEST PRIZES HIGHER

The annual essay contest sponsored by the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped will be held this year from November 1 to February 1.

The announcement was made by Paul G. Pensinger, chairman of the local Employment of the Physically Handicapped Committee, in pointing out that the essay contest, in which a number of area high school students are expected to participate, will be one of the year-round activities conducted by the Governor's Committee in addition to National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week which is being observed this year from October 4-10.

While a special effort is being made during NEPH Week to place handicapped persons in gainful employment of the importance of this activity and the savings it can bring (Continued on Page 3)

County Soldier Is Burned In Germany

Airman 2/c Thomas E. Aumen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard P. Aumen Sr., New Oxford R. 1, was injured September 17 while on duty with the 7030th Maintenance and Supply Squadron in Germany.

According to word received by Mr. and Mrs. Aumen, their son suffered first, second and third degree burns when his clothing was set afire by gas from an exploding blow torch with which he was working.

Airman Aumen is now undergoing a series of skin grafting operations on his right leg, between the ankle and thigh.

GUEST PREACHER
The Rev. Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, former president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, will speak at 10:15 a.m. Sunday at Quicksilver Church, Zion View, in another of the series of services in the month-long celebration of the 190th anniversary of the founding of the Lutheran congregation.

DR. DYSINGER WILL SPEAK AT THREE SESSIONS

Dr. Frances Dysinger, secretary for promotion of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Lutheran Church in America, will conduct special conferences in the West Pennsylvania Conference of the Central Pennsylvania Synod. Dr. Dysinger's tour will begin with an address at the annual conference which convenes next week in Chambersburg. Following the convention she will appear in Camp Hill, Mercersburg, Mt. Holly Springs, Carlisle, Newville and York.

Adams County will have Dr. Dysinger for three services. It is hoped that every Lutheran woman in the County will attend at least one of these rallies.

The first service will be held in St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Littlestown on Monday evening, October 19. Mrs. Carl Baumgardner is in charge of arrangements and will preside at this meeting. Mrs. Baumgardner is vice president of the Adams District of the organization.

Second Service Here
The second service will be held Tuesday evening, October 20, at 7:30 in St. James Lutheran Church, Gettysburg. Mrs. Luther McDonnell, president of the Adams District, will preside at this service.

The concluding service will be in Trinity Lutheran Church, Arendtsville, and is specially planned for the convenience of the women of Upper Adams County. Mrs. Luther Lady, president of the Arendtsville group, will preside.

Dr. Dysinger is well known in Adams County and has spoken at district and synodical conferences many times. She has done intermission work in Washington, D. C., and has done promotional work for the Women's Missionary Society throughout the United States.

JACK BARTLETT WILL RECEIVE SAFETY AWARD

Chief of Police Jack Bartlett will receive the 1953 National Honorary Safety Council Award for "outstanding achievements" in the promotion of traffic safety.

The award will be made at Tuesday evening's meeting of the Exchange Club in Banker's Restaurant.

Bartlett's selection was made at a recent meeting of representatives of Gettysburg service clubs and announced today by Chamber of Commerce President N. A. Mell-gakes.

The nomination, coming less than a year after Bartlett assumed the office of police chief, climaxes ten months of conscientious community service and traffic regulation which has known only one highway fatality during 1953.

Weaver Honored In 1952
A tribute to the community as well as to the borough officials, the award presentation will mark the second consecutive year for a Gettysburg citizen to be nationally honored by the highway safety council. Last year's winner was Burgess William G. Weaver.

Formal presentation of the plaque to the 51-year-old Bartlett—a law officer for the past 24 years—will be made by Dr. Andrew S. Beshore, member of the Governor's Highway Safety Advisory Committee.

Beshore, nationally known speaker and humorist, gave the 1952 award to Weaver at a program sponsored by the Gettysburg Rotary Club.

C B DIRECTORS MEET OCT. 20

Organization of the newly elected board of directors of the Adams County Credit Bureau will be held Tuesday evening, October 20, at 8 p.m. in the Bureau office, 154 E. Middle St., Secretary Ernest Dulany announced today.

The board will elect officers and determine which directors shall serve one-year, two-year and three-year terms.

Named to the board at a recent election were: Littlestown district, Littlestown State Bank and Littlestown National Bank; New Oxford-Abbottstown district, Sleight's Furniture store; East Berlin district, East Berlin Flour and Feed Mill; Biglerville-Aspers-Bendersville-Guernsey and Arendtsville district, Ditzler's Furniture store and Restaurant and O. C. Rice and Son; York Springs-Heidelsburg district, Kennedy's Electrical Service; Fairfield-Cash-town district, John A. Shultz; Gettysburg district, John Hewitt, Robert A. Bartley, William H. Musser Jr., Robert Codori, Roy W. Weaver and James Weaver.

Grieving Parents

Robert Greenlease walks beside his wife as the grieving parents of the slain kidnap victim, six-year-old Bobby Greenlease, leave the mausoleum at Forest Hills Cemetery, Kansas City, October 9, after the burial of their son. Walking before them is their daughter, Virginia Sue, 11. The clergymen are unidentified.

LOCAL SCOUTS TO SEEK EAGLE AWARDS OCT. 22

Plans for an "Eagle Board of Review," for six Boy Scouts seeking to secure the Eagle award, highest given by scouting, were announced today by Scout Field Executive Charles S. Harris.

Three scouts from the Black Walnut district, Frank Ehlman and David Harmon, both of Post 71, Biglerville, and Robert Bonduant, of Caledonia, will be among the group appearing before the board at its meeting October 22 at the office of Attorney Eugene R. Hartman, Baltimore St.

Two other scouts seeking to pass the examination for Eagle scout will be from Hanover and one from York.

Plan Dancing Lessons
Rush Little, Hanover, York Adams Council advancement chairman, and Rev. Clyde R. Brown, Black Walnut board of review chairman, will be in charge of the board session.

Field Executive Harris also reported on a meeting of Post 85, New Oxford, headed by Philip Alwine, with Bernard Wagner as assistant.

The New Oxford Explorer Scouts are planning a hay ride October 16, with John George providing the wagon; construction of a 33-foot float to be entered in Halloween parades at Gettysburg, York, Hanover and New Oxford; participation in a Christmas Party at Hanover December 10 and an encampment December 11, 12 and 13 at Camp Tuckahoe.

The scouts also plan to take dancing lessons during November, with a New Oxford High School teacher as instructor, in preparation for a council Explorer's Ball at York December 30.

FORFEITS FINES

Kenneth E. Duke, Philadelphia, paid fines totalling $35 and costs before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. He was arrested by borough police on charges of failing to apply and have issued a title for his vehicle, and failing to have the vehicle properly registered before using. He forfeited $25 on the first count and $10 on the second.

To Peel Or Not To Peel Is Town Clock Question

The county's "town clock" atop the Court House stands mute and silent while the Adams County commissioners consider the problem of giving it a voice.

With the change over the past few weeks from the almost century old weights and gears system of time-keeping to an electric clock mechanism, the town clock lost its voice.

The old system motivated a huge clapper which tapped out the hours on the sides of the court house bell, producing a mellow tone that seemed to please the musical sensitivities of the entire community.

Sometimes it emitted only eight or nine notes when the clock said ten, and sometimes it rapped out a dozen strokes when the clock face proclaimed two or three o'clock, but the tone was always perfect, even though the count might not be.

Now the commissioners are faced with a problem of restoring the voice to the old time clock.

Happy Birthday

"Happy Birthday" cards are being received at the Hershey post office "by the hundreds" according to John H. Basehore, local GOP chairman.

"A number of Adams Countians have asked me to where they should address Happy Birthday greetings to President Eisenhower. The answer is, two places. Either address them to the President at the White House or send them to him at Hershey, Pa. for his birthday party which will be held there next Tuesday," Basehore said.

GIVES BAIL ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Leo R. Barrett, 20, New Oxford R. 1, was charged with driving under the influence of intoxicants following an accident on Carlisle St. in New Oxford at 7:30 o'clock Friday night.

State police placed the charge before Justice of the Peace Claude Straley. Barrett was released on bail.

Police said Barrett was driving north on Carlisle St. in New Oxford when his car struck the south-bound vehicle of Carson C. Lamberson, 30, Abbottstown R. 1, forcing the Lamberson car into the parked auto of Claude L. Flickinger, New Oxford R. 2. Lamberson was treated by a New Oxford physician for bruises of the face and left leg.

Damage to the Barrett car was estimated at $350, to Lamberson's, $250, and Flickinger's, $75.

Mrs. Weikert Is Buried On Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Clarence M. Weikert, 62, who died Tuesday afternoon in the Warner Hospital, were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Allison Funeral Home, Fairfield.

Pallbearers for Mrs. Weikert were: Robert Musselman, Harry Spangler, John Beard, Allen Weikert, Francis Weikert and Edward Weikert. Services were conducted by the Rev. Verle Schumacher and the Rev. Emmert G. Colestock. Interment was in Fairfield Union Cemetery.

Eagles Give $113 For Parade Prizes

The Gettysburg Aerie, No. 1562, of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at a regular meeting Friday evening voted $113 to the Halloween parade prize fund and $100 to the Damon Runyan Cancer Fund.

Plans were announced for the annual turkey banquet December 3 at the lodge home and for a dance on October 30 with prizes and noisemakers to add to the Halloween celebration.

Three new members were elected: Harrison Runkle, Harold S. Rummel and Joseph DeCosmo.

DR. GOSS TO SPEAK

Dr. Elwood L. Goss, director of missionary promotion for the Council on Missionary Cooperation of the Pennsylvania Baptist convention, will speak Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church here. He will speak at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in Grace Baptist Church, Fairfield.

Driver Jailed For Drunken Driving

Two men were injured and one was jailed as a result of an auto accident at 1 o'clock this morning two miles west of New Oxford on the Lincoln Highway.

State police, who investigated, said Merle E. Jamison, 25, Fayetteville, while driving west, drove off the road and knocked down three guard rails, causing $1,000 to his car.

Jamison suffered lacerations of two fingers. A passenger in the car, George McNew, Fayetteville R. 1, had lacerations of the face. Both were brought to the Warner Hospital in the New Oxford ambulance and were treated here. Jamison was committed to the Adams County jail for a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore on a charge of driving under the influence of intoxicating liquors after being treated at the hospital.

MAGAZINE HAS PAGE STORY ON TIMES LAYOUTS

An entire page in the National Real Estate and Building Journal for September is devoted to an advertising campaign devised by Charles W. Harbaugh of The Gettysburg Times advertising staff for the Gettysburg Construction Co.

The page is headed "Poetry Packs Punch" and the accompanying text of four of the advertisements written by Harbaugh states: "How do you get people to visit your demonstration homes? By advertising, of course. But it must be done in a way that will capture attention. To make your ad stand head and shoulders above the others on the page takes down-to-earth creative thinking."

"Gettysburg Construction Company, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, has done just that with the series illustrated here, in which poetry is used to get its selling message across."

Police Laud Local Grid Celebrators

Borough police today expressed their appreciation of the "new attitude" toward post-football-game celebrations by the high school students.

"The youngsters are proving that they can have a good time while letting off steam after a victory without resorting to crazy driving," Chief Jack Bartlett said today.

The students, the chief said, "are driving through the town in a sensible manner during their celebrations of football victories. They are cheering and shouting, but the celebrations have been pitched at a good level and should disturb no one. The condition is a marked improvement over previous years and I think the youngsters should be commended for their cooperation and intelligence in the matter."

$250 Damage From Crash Near Drive-in Damage estimated at $250 resulted Friday at 8:30 p.m. when the car operated by Donald Kretz, 24, of 126 Locust St., Hanover, collided with the vehicle driven by Edward Clapper, 30, York R. 1, approximately one-half mile east of New Oxford on Route 30.

State police report Clapper was driving behind Kretz when the latter turned to the center of the highway apparently to enter the Cross Keys Drive-In Theatre. Clapper assumed a left turn and went to pass on the right when Kretz turned to the right. The collision resulted.

Leon Sherman, 31, York R. 1, as passenger in the back seat of Clapper's car, suffered a slightly contused right leg. He was not treated. Damage to Clapper's car amounted to $150. Damage to the Kretz vehicle was estimated at $100.

Grass Pierces Irish Cobbler

Preston S. Peters, 82-year-old Bendersville native, has come to the conclusion that a local abomination known as "Devil Grass" is almost as persistent as its never-dwell namesake.

While weeding a cantaloupe patch several days ago, Peters discovered that a stalk of the weed of this species had forced its way through the center of a medium-sized Irish cobbler potato.

Brought to the attention of the Biology Department at Gettysburg College, the spud and its hitch-hiking companion were pronounced by Professor George E. Grube, instructor of biology, as "an amazing anomaly—of which there are millions."

Dr. Earl Bowen, head of the biology department, plans to freshen the specimens by treating with water and then photographing for future observation.

At last report both weed and potato were doing fine.

Announce Additional Sponsors For Party

Additional sponsors for the benefit card party and dance held by the Auxiliary of the Warner Hospital Thursday at the Moose Lodge, York St., were announced today.

The group includes: Dr. and Mrs. James Allison and Mr. and Mrs. B. Kitzmiller, Gettysburg; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Knouse, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Raffensperger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heckenluber, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Wiernan, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Bushman, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hoke, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McDannell, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Orner, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Hoffman, Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Sterrett, Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Hale Jr., Boyer's Nursery, all of the Arendtsville area, and Bob's Diner, R. C. Kennedy Electrical Appliances and Mrs. Anna Cristafaro, all of York Springs.

Holstein Breeders Plan Tour Oct. 30

Plans for an all-day tour into Maryland October 30 by the Adams County Holstein Breeders Association were announced today by Wade Brown, secretary-treasurer of the county organization.

The tour, of various outstanding dairy farms in the neighboring state, is being arranged by Arthur Nesbitt, secretary-fieldman of the state Holstein Breeders Association.

MOTORIST CHARGED

Thomas R. Sotack, Freeland, Pa., received a 10-day notice to appear before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder for failing to yield one-half of a highway to an approaching vehicle resulting in a collision.

The gift of a new bookmobile to the Adams County Free Library by the C. H. Musselman Foundation was announced Friday evening at the October meeting of the library's board of directors.

The new machine, which will be selected by the library board, will have a capacity of 2,000 volumes, about double the load carried by "Redwing," the converted panel truck that has been hauling books monthly to all of the schools in the county, to branch libraries and a dozen rural book stations for nearly seven years.

After the announcement by President William M. Lott, the board adopted a resolution of thanks and then turned to the problems of getting enough children's books to make capacity use of the new equipment and of providing quarters to store the new bookmobile. A section of the old jail stable used to house the present bookmobile is too small for the larger vehicle expected here in a few months.

Need Books, Garage, Stackroom
The board revived a plan discussed a year or two ago and shelved for lack of funds. The plan calls for erection of a combination garage and stackroom at the back of the present library building which would afford more book storage space for the library and would make possible undercover loading and unloading of the bookmobile.

Friday's announcement, not a surprise to most members of the library board, was followed by a report from a group of library directors who went Thursday to Anne Arundel and Montgomery Counties in Maryland to inspect large, modern bookmobiles in use there. President Lott; Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, librarian; L. S. Long, Mrs. Kenneth Smoke and Mrs. C. T. Ziegler of the board made the trip.

They described the new bookmobiles as a modern walk-in library on wheels, large enough to supply a class of 30 or 35 pupils with books in 20 minutes or less. The pupils make their selections from books displayed on shelves that line the bookmobile.

Nearing New Record
The present bookmobile has made possible an annual circulation of more than 100,000 books and Mrs. Wilson told the board Friday evening that there has been a 40 per cent increase in bookmobile circulation since the early years of the library. She added that registrations of school children this year total more than 300 above the figure served last year.

The present bookmobile, named "Redwing" by school children of the county, has traveled nearly 29,000 miles on its monthly book routes to all sections of the county.

A new circulation record is being set by the library this year, Mrs. Wilson's report showed, with circulation for the first nine months reaching 99,466. Circulation in September totaled 2,897 as against 2,176 in the same month last year. The month's figure includes more than 400 book loans at the Biglerville branch which Mrs. Wilson said "is working out very well."

Annual Meeting Nov. 24
It was announced that the annual meeting of the library association will be held Tuesday, November 24, and President Lott appointed Mrs. Smoke, Mrs. Ziegler and Dean Asquith to the program committee for the session. A nominating committee will be named later, Mr. Lott announced.

After Mrs. Wilson pointed out that the library's collection of children's books would just about fill the bookmobile but leave none on the shelves for local circulation, the board voted $500 for new books for juvenile readers. Many of the volumes will come in special heavy bindings that cost more but make the books last longer.

Mrs. Wilson said the bookmobile leaves one book for three children on its rounds now but if the book collection can be built up to make capacity use of the new bookmobile, (Continued on Page 2)

Library Needs County History

The Adams County Free Library would welcome the gift of a copy of Bates' History of Adams and Cumberland Counties—or an opportunity to buy one at a reasonable price.

Among the thousands of books donated to the county library since it opened in 1945 was only one copy of the coveted Bates' history.

Now that copy has gone to the University of Texas on an inter-library loan request the library felt obliged to honor. The book was requested by a historical researcher in Texas.

Until the copy is returned the library is without a county history but members of the library board are of the opinion there are a number of copies in the county "and there may be someone who would give a copy to the library," one director said.

INDIANS FEAR SOUTH KOREANS' ANTI-RED MOVES

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
PANMANJOM — American "alert troops" with tanks and flamethrowers took up positions pointing south today in an ominous warning against South Korean threats to attack Indian soldiers guarding war prisoners in the neutral zone.

The use of strength followed an Indian appeal for American aid in curbing any South Korean drive toward the compounds housing 22,600 anti-Communist North Korean and Chinese POWs.

The U. S. State Department only Friday assured India it would take precautions to head off possible South Korean interference.

The State Department also disclosed that it had—prior to the Indian appeal—warned South Korea that the U. N. Command would forcibly resist any attempt to free the POWs or attack Indian troops.

South Koreans Oppose Indians
South Korea, which considers India pro-Communist, has repeatedly threatened to drive the Indians from Korea—by force, if necessary.

The situation tightened after the Indians killed 3 POWs and wounded 10 recently in putting down two attempted escapes by the prisoners.

Meanwhile, Allied engineers worked speedily constructing facilities near Panmunjom where the Communists will interview the North Korean and Chinese POWs who refuse to go home.

The camp is scheduled for completion Monday morning and it is possible that the explanations designed to persuade POWs to accept repatriation will get under way at that time.

The explanations have been delayed since Sept. 26, mainly because of a snarl over facilities. Both the U. N. Command and Reds turned down centers built by the other and demanded detailed changes.

Luncheon And Sale Planned By Church

A cafeteria luncheon for business folk and a sale of food and handwork to be brought together in a harvest season gathering at the church will be conducted next Wednesday by the 40 members of the Isabella Thoburn Circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church.

The luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. but the sale of handwork suitable for Christmas presents, baked goods and canned foods will continue until 7 p.m. Both events will take place at the church.

A brief dedicatory service will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Victor K. Meredith Jr., before the activities begin Wednesday.

Mrs. Earl Brandon is chairman of the committee on arrangements and Mrs. Riley Heckert is the assistant chairman.

for the award," Mr. Mellick said. "The manner in which Bartlett has organized the borough police force, guarded the safety of our pedestrians, and administered traffic safety in and about this town speaks for itself."

John Slentz, secretary of the Exchange Club, said, "In the relatively short time Bartlett has been at the helm of the Gettysburg police he has quickly effected an almost complete revamping of police procedure and administration."

Bartlett was elected police chief by the Borough Council, December 1, 1952, after the town had been without an official police head since February, 1951, following the resignation of Robert C. Harpster.

Bartlett was born in Pittston, Pa., September 16, 1902. He enlisted in the state police on February 11, 1930, and was made a corporal in 1936. He has seen service with the state police in Hazleton, Milton, Warren, Erie, West Springfield, Carlisle, Harrisburg, Gettysburg, and other communities.

Geisler, vocalist and Donald Wright, Biglerville, cornetist.

AGED COUPLE DIE IN BLAZE

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (P)—A pre-dawn fire destroyed an eight room frame house at nearby Masontown today, killing Charles Moxie, 66-year-old retired coal miner, and his invalid wife, Pauline, 63.

Jon Zvelonski, 40; his wife, Helen 35, and their three sons escaped without injury. The Zvelonski family occupied the front of the house, while the Moxies lived in the rear.

Zvelonski said he awoke and smelled smoke, then called his wife who hurried from the burning building with her six-month old baby. Zvelonski escorted his two older sons to safety.

Firemen said the home was enveloped in flames when they arrived. Cause of the fire has not been determined. Firemen said it apparently started in the rear of the house.

Zvelonski said one of his sons stopped in the rush from the house to pick up the father's pay envelope which was lying on a table.

There was no estimate of the loss, but firemen said little was saved except the clothes the Zvelonskis were wearing.

Harney

HARNEY—The Volunteer Fire Co. of this village is planning for its big supper Saturday evening. Roasted chicken and ham are on the menu. They will start serving at 3 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lake Ridinger Jr., moved into part of Mrs. Estella Hahn's house last week.

Miss Jo-Ann Newcomer of Taneytown spent the weekend with Miss Linda Haines.

Mrs. Hannah Eckenrode has returned to her home here after a few days with her grandson, Eugene Eckenrode, and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Clutz of Keyville and Mrs. Minnie Hatch of Council Bluffs, Iowa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clutz on Tuesday.

The Harney Boys' 4-H Club held a monthly meeting at the home of Clyde Weant. The business meeting was called to order by the president, Albert Angell. The 4-H pledge was recited. Reports were given by those attending the Maryland State Fair. Everyone who has a project has to have his record book completed before the achievement banquet in November, it was announced.

A demonstration was given by Clyde Weant of the proper way to keep record books. One new member, Ronald Shriver, was present. The next meeting will be at the home of Robert and Charles Poole.

A birthday supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Yingling Sunday evening. A duck and oyster supper with all the trimmings was served in honor of Donna L. Soldiers Buy $650 in Bonds; Then Burn Them: One thousand trainees at Fort McClellan, Ala., under the command of Col. Lester L. Lampert, former Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Gettysburg College, participated in the Third War Bond Drive in an unusual way.First they individually bought stamps. Then they converted the stamps into bonds. And then they burned the bonds at an impressive ceremony at the amphitheater Monday night while members of the organization watched.Three bonds, $100, $50 and $500, were purchased and burned. The idea originated with trainees in the 31st Bn., 7th Regiment, who wished to make an outright gift to the United States.Stable Advanced to First Lieutenant: John C. "Buck" Stahle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stahle, York St., was recently promoted to first lieutenant at the United States Military Academy at West Point where he is serving as an instructor.
Lt. Stahle has also been elevated from piebald-foolish coach to assistant "B" squad coach.Presbyterians Install 24th Minister Here: The Rev. Robert W.
Hunt was installed Thursday evening as the twenty-fourth pastor of the local Presbyterian Church which marked its bicentennial anniversary three years ago.
Successor to the Rev. Seth G. Morrow, now pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Pottsville, the Rev. Mr. Hunt begins his second pastorate since the completion of advanced work at Princeton University following his graduation there in 1939. He came here from Maple Heights Presbyterian Church at Cleveland, O.The installation service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Raymond C.
Walker, Carlisle Presbytery's moderator and pastor of Market Square Church in Harrisburg. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Thomas S. Dickson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of York, of which Mrs. Hunt formerly was a member.Here and There: "He would eat steak four times a day if I'd serve it to him . . . and he loves Rissole potatoes with plenty of gravy and apple pie."That's what Mrs. Dwight D. El-senhower said of her distinguished husband, Gen. Dwight David Elsenhower, commander of Allied forces in the titanic struggle now being waged in Italy, during the course of a 40-minute interview it was our privilege to have the with her during a brief visit made to Gettysburg this week-end.
Interviewing the wife of one of the most outstanding field generals of this war was unusually pleasant and interesting. A splendid conversationalist, vivacious and a most charming personality, Mrs. Elsenhower readily answered a barrage of questions with an infectious smile that is best described in her own words of her husband: "Ike has the most engaging grin of anybody I've met." She is the tailored type of woman, unassuming, modest and unaffected by the heights of prominence to which she has been hurled by the world-wide fame of her soldier-husband.When she returned from a tour of the Battlefield Sunday and after visiting the site where her husband had his field headquarters here in 1918, Mrs. Eisenhower said: "How well I remember watching soldiers, sitting on the grass on the little elevation across the road from my husband's headquarters, writing letters. I don't think I shall ever forget that. And that's what our boys want most of all in this war letters . . . letters. We should be cheerful and keep on carrying on for our boys. We should write often . . .
write more cheerful letters."Mrs. Eisenhower thoroughly enjoyed her brief visit to Gettysburg.
"I've had a marvelous time. It's been restful for me and I hope I can return again, real soon, for a longer stay," she declared.
"What does the general want to do after the war?" we asked.
"He wants to go fishing," she replied. "It doesn't make any difference to him whether he catches any . . . just as long as he can fish."

60-Year-Old Patient Is Enjoying

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE CHEERFUL FRONT

There is a great deal of pollyanna-ism about many expressions, such as "Keep smiling,"
"Keep a stiff upper lip," and so on, but there is something deep in us all that tells us we have more power than we know and that there is more in a cheerful front than mere words. It's our attitude toward life and its problems — the thinking that goes on in our minds from day to day.There are people whom we meet again and again who inspire us without the utterance of a single word. Something deep within their consciousness radiates.
There are lights of integrity, courage, patience, and faith that stand out in the very look and attitude of such people.We have all known people with this cheerful front — people well acquainted with difficulties, sorrow, and struggle, but who give no evidence of any defeatable spots in their makeup and character. They are the ones who are always welcomed as visitors, companions, and genuine friends. During these days when there is so much fear and foreboding in the minds of many, it is like experiencing the sunny day or the cool breeze to meet one whose eyes are set upon cheerful out-looks.We shrink from complainers, gossipers, and predictors of evil and unhappy days ahead. How do we know what is ahead? It is not enough to hold to a cheerful front, and take life in its stride?
Things are rarely even so black as they seem, or as some people paint them to be. There are too many fear ghosts, and too many people who are entertaining them!
Never have opportunities been so promising and never have we had so many things to make us happy and comfortable.It behooves us all to keep a cheerful front, to share our blessings, and to see what we can do as individuals to make this a better world. We never know how far the little candle of influence and hope shines its way to the hearts of others. Faith is something upon which we can constantly build more faith.Protected, 1953, George Matthew

GIFTS UNBESTOWABLE

My grandsire knew the way of things, Loved gears and wheels and rods and rings.As his descendant I should be As fond of all machines as he,
But no inheritance I drew.
When he passed on, of what he knew.Those useful hands which he possessed
Were stilled when he was called to rest.The tools he used with so much skill
Were merely mentioned in his will.
But of the knowledge he had gained
To aid his loved ones none remained.Not one of those who wealth prefer, Wisdom and skill his riches were.
And even now at times I grieve
That those to me he couldn't leave.
There's much with tools that I might do.Had I but learned what grandpa knew.

MISSING YANKS
IN KOREA DEADWASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department says that most of the nearly 8,000 American servicemen listed as missing in Korea "must eventually be presumed dead."While adhering strictly to its rule that no man is reported dead without "reasonably conclusive evidence," the department said Thursday, it holds little hope that any great number of them will be found alive.Pentagon officials said battle conditions made it impossible to recover and identify many of the killed in Korea. They said "all possible efforts"—including communication with the Reds and interrogation of returned prisoners—are being made to determine the fate of the missing.GIRL HELPS TO less than 24 hours after police said he killed a San Francisco policeman.Sullen faced Harold Miller, 25, who had forced two men to drive him here from San Francisco, was quoted as saying "You've got the right guy" as the officers collared him moments after he left a downtown theater showing "From Here to Eternity." He was armed with a fully loaded Luger pistol.The capture climaxed a huge manhunt, touched off when Leo McCarthy, 26, University of San Francisco student, and John Foran, 23, convalescing Korean veteran, told police here that they had been forced to drive Miller from the Bay City.After booking Miller on suspicion of murder, Inspector Hugh H.

Farnham said, "He freely admitted the shooting."Police Inspector Dennis Bradley was fatally wounded as officers went to Miller's home to question him about recent San Francisco robberies.Lynch said that Miller was released two weeks ago from the San

Unbeaten Warriors Upset Waynesboro 12-6 On Pair Of Penn-To-Musser Passes

Old Lady Luck creased her face with smiles and looked down upon her newly-adapted unbeaten Gettysburg High School Warriors as they defeated Waynesboro High 12-6, before 2,500 Friday night at Waynesboro.

Outplayed most of the way, the Warriors capitalized on their aerial arm to score on two lightning thrusts in the first half, and then hung on to the ropes the second half to cap their fifth straight victory.

The first George Penn to glue fingered Stanton Musser pass-play covered 72 yards with Musser taking the ball on his own 40 and racing 60 yards in 6:14 Penn's placement attempt was wide, his first miss of the season.

Late in the second quarter, the same combination accounted for a second TD with Penn running far to his right, and tossing a 22-yard aerial to Musser who was all by himself in the end zone. Again Penn missed on his placement for the point.

A power failure nearly caused the game to be called at this point, and as things worked out it would probably have saved Coaches Howard Shoemaker and Jack Cervino many gray hairs.

The Golden Tornado, undaunted at Gettysburg's unbeaten record, chased the Warriors all over the gridiron the final half but could score only once as the locals' defense arose to the occasion several times.

Capitalize on Fumble
The home team got the break they were hoping for late in the final period as Gary Barkdoll recovered a Gettysburg fumble on the Warrior 25. On two plays Larry Provand picked up a first down on the 14. A Charles Ruppert-Provand pass fell incomplete but Ruppert raced to the 4 on the next play for a first down. After a plunge failed to gain, Provand hit center for the touchdown. An attempted pass for the extra point was batted down by an aroused Gettysburg line.

The game ended several minutes later with Waynesboro returning a Penn punt to the Gettysburg 38. Despite victory, the Warriors played under their usual form. Apparently suffering from a slight case of over-confidence following the splendid 41-13 victory over Hanover a week ago, the local lads could not get their ground attack into gear throughout the evening. Oddly enough, the two scoring plays were the only passes Penn completed, three being grounded, and several would-be aersals never getting off as the rugged Tornado line rushed Penn.

Good Punters Aid
Several times throughout the contest Penn executed some beautiful punts to extricate the Warriors from dangerous situations.

In scoring twice Musser, one of the finest ends in this section, ran his total of touchdowns for the season to seven.

Ruppert ran for 40 yards for an apparent score in the third quarter but the plays was called back and Waynesboro penalized five yards for offside. It was the only penalty of the game for the Tornadoes.

The 35-minute halftime intermission caused by the power failure appeared to do more harm than good to Gettysburg while the home team seemed to benefit from the added rest period.

Waynesboro outgained the Warriors, 11-4 in first downs. In yardage gained by rushing the Golden Tornado amassed 161 net yards while Gettysburg had a net gain of -11. Bill Jarlett, Waynesboro's 190-

Albright Host To Bullets Tonight; WGET To Air Game

Gettysburg College's football squad left this afternoon at 1:15 o'clock for Reading where it will meet Albright tonight at 8 o'clock in the Albright Stadium.

The Bullets, 1-1 for the season, have been ranked in many quarters as the underdog against the Lions. Eddie Gullian's Albright outfit has defeated Muhlenberg while losing to Temple and Lafayette.

Tonight's game will be broadcast by WGET.

UCLA COLLECTS ANOTHER SCALP; SMU BREEZES OVER MISSOURI

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP)—UCLA, one of the powers on the Pacific Coast—if not the power—had another scalp dangling on its belt today, but it wasn't an easy one to come by.

The UCLA's whipped Wisconsin in a major intersectional clash last night, 13-10, scoring one touchdown in the first period and another in the third. Paul Cameron went over for the first score after recovering a fumble on the 24 and Bob Davenport tallied the other carrying from the two after Cameron had started drive with a 22-yard run.

In Dallas, Southern Methodist, two-point loser to Georgia Tech last week, coasted to a 20-7 victory over Missouri. Dale Moore scored two of the winners' touchdowns. Missouri was hopelessly out of it when Jim Milne tossed an 11-yard pass to Pete Corpeny in the end zone.

Houston Opens With Win
Houston opened its Missouri Valley Conference schedule with a 25-19 triumph over Detroit with sophomore Don Hargrave picking up 199 yards in 10 carries against the vaunted Detroit defenses.

Held scoreless in the first half, Miami burst forth with six touchdowns in the second session to ruin Clemson's its Orange Bowl rival in 1952 and Gator Bowl opponent in 1953, 39-13. The scoring was evenly divided among six players on the Miami team with freshmen Jack Lowe and Don Dorshimer carrying the brunt of the burden.

Michigan Favored
Notre Dame, the No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll this week, enjoys a day off.

Ohio State and Michigan, the two teams that are expected to make things hot for Michigan State in the Big 10 race, have assignments that could make them sweat.

The Buckeyes meet Illinois, which has a tie and a victory on its slate. The Illini have a speedy attack, the kind that could make things difficult.

Michigan is an eight-point favorite over Iowa. Forest Evashevski, the old Wolverine bulldozer for Tommy Harmon, returns to the scene of his past triumphs. Iowa is no pushover this year.

Army, Navy Favorites
The top game in the South sends Auburn (2-0) against Mississippi State (3-0) with State and Jackie Parker favored by seven points. In another big Dixie clash, Maryland is 14 points over Georgia. Duke entertains Purdue.

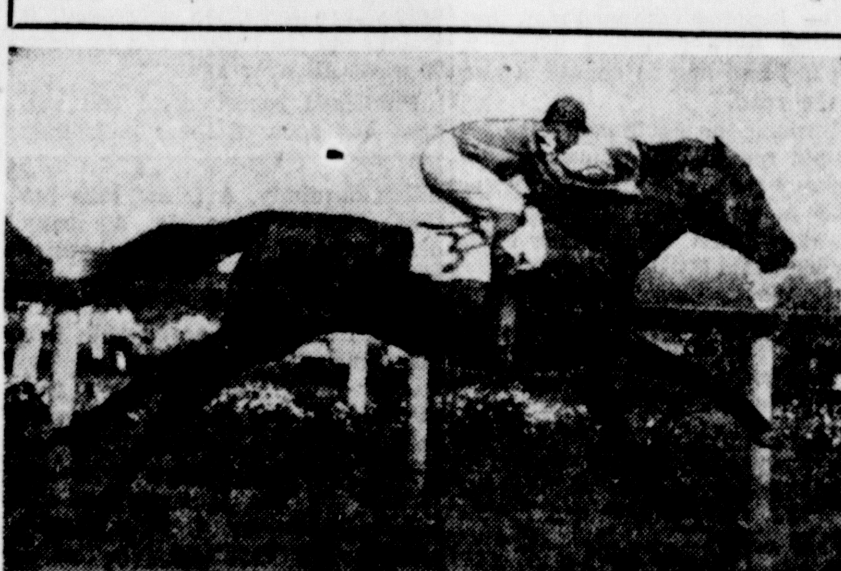

In the East, Princeton, one of the Ivy League powers meets neighboring Rutgers, while Yale plays Columbia in an Ivy League encounter. Syracuse is favored over Fordham as is Army over Dartmouth and Navy over Cornell.

Northwestern is the choice over winless Minnesota and Pitt is rated over Nebraska in the Midwest. Rice figures to lick Hardin-Simmons and Texas A and M plays Texas Tech in the Southwest, while in the Far West some of the top contests send Oregon against Oregon State and Colorado A and M against Wyoming.

KNOW GAME HARD WAY
DETROIT (AP)—All five members of the Detroit Lions' coaching staff are veterans of National Football League play. Head Coach Buddy Parker played with the Lions and the Chicago Cards. George Wilson and Aldo Forte played for the Chicago Bears. Buster Ramsey starred with the Chicago Cardinals. Russ Thomas was a tackle for the Lions.

VIE FOR HARNESSE HONORS
YONKERS, N. Y. (AP)—Stanley Dancer and Bill Houghton will be vying for the 1953 harness driving crown this year. Both are far ahead of their nearest rivals. If either one wins the title he will be the youngest ever to take it. Dancer is 26 and Houghton is 29.

TOM FOOL TO RACE

Shown here winning a recent stake, the great Thoroughbred Tom Fool will be seen by Maryland racing fans for the first time during the coming 12 day session at Pimlico. The current champion of the turf is eligible for the $50,000 Pimlico Special on Saturday, October 24. The Baltimore racetrack opens on Monday, October 12.

Waitkus Back On Phillies' Roster

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eddie Waitkus, 33-year-old first baseman, was back on the official roster of the Philadelphia Phillies today following the lifting of his suspension.

Many observers regarded the reinstatement as the prelude to a long-talked-of trade. The slick-fielding Eddie rode the bench during most of the 1953 season while newcomer Earl Torgeson played his position.

Waitkus, who came to the Phils in 1949 from the Chicago Cubs, was suspended by president Bob Carpenter eight days before the end of the season for leaving the club to be at the bedside of his ill father.

Later Eddie said he had not gone through the "proper channels" in asking permission to join his father.

Carpenter, in lifting the suspension, said he had investigated the seriousness of the father's illness.

WILLIE TROY IS EASY WINNER

NEW YORK (AP)—"Eight more more fights and he'll be ready for a title shot."

That's what co-manager George Winn said after his Willie Troy stopped rubbery Terry Moore of Baltimore in 2:49 of the seventh round of a telecast bout at St. Nicholas Arena last night.

It was no contest as the power-punching 21-year-old Washington D. C., middleweight scored his 22nd victory and 16th knockout. A knock-out loss to Holly Mims is the only blot on his record.

Next in line for Willie is either Randy Sandy or the winner of the Oct. 23 Garden fight between Tuzo (Kid) Portuquez and Pierre Langlois. Chicago or St. Louis probably will get Troy's next fight.

Sandy was to have been Troy's opponent last night but he withdrew Tuesday with a bad eye and Moore filled in on four-days notice. Moore subbed in the same Arena 2½ years ago and came up with an upset victory.

Against Troy, he just didn't have it.

HOCKEY SEASON OPENS TONIGHT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The American Hockey League opens another season tonight with all six teams in action. The schedule finds Cleveland at Pittsburgh, Providence at Hershey and Buffalo at Syracuse.

The defending champion Cleveland Barons will start the new campaign facing the same club—Pittsburgh's Hornets—that they beat in regular season and then edged past in the playoffs with an overtime goal.

The new league setup is a change from the days when the AHL had eight teams and operated with an Eastern and Western division. When Indianapolis and St. Louis dropped out they went back to a single division. The clubs will play a 70-game schedule ending on March 21, after which the playoffs will begin.

DURHAM, N. C. (AP)—The individual scoring championship in Duke University football the past two seasons has been won by a guy named Smith. In 1951 Charlie Smith won the scoring crown with 42 points. Last year Charlie finished second to James (Red) Smith. The latter had 50 points to Charlie's 48. Red returns for the 1953 season but Charlie is now in the service.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—The Notre Dame football squad this season has players from 10 states, Canada and Hawaii. Illinois produced 17 team members. Of the Illinois group, 14 are from Chicago. Ohio is second on the list with 11, followed closely by Pennsylvania with 10.

DE MARCOS TO BATTLE TONIGHT

BOSTON (AP)—The unrelated lightweight DeMarcos, young Tony of Boston, and veteran Paddy of Brooklyn, will provide a 10-round boxing bout for a national television audience tonight at Mechanics Building.

The Boston youngster, who has made about 15 professional starts, has knocked out his last six opponents. But he is considered too inexperienced for the round and tough Paddy, who has been labeled "The Billy Goat" by a long line of rivals since 1945.

Although eager Tony agrees that he is stepping out of his class against the high ranking DeMarcos, he insists his punching ability offsets his opponent's skill and cunning.

The bout will be telecast by ABC at 9 p. m. (EST) with New England blacked out. Under the Massachusetts Boxing Commission's scoring system, the winner of a round will be credited with 10 points and the loser with nine or less.

FOXY SITUATION SOLVED
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Foxhunters and foxes got a break when Missouri's Gov. Phil M. Donnelly vetoed a bounty bill.

Donnelly noticed the bounty bill would have covered only the gray fox, an inhabitant of wooded areas and not much of a predator. The red fox, sly quarry of the hunters' hounds, is the one that lives in the farming areas and grabs off a lot of poultry.

The governor said it looked like discrimination to him. So he settled it by vetoing the measure.

Delone Yields TD In Last Period To Drop 20-13 Tilt To Heavy Westminster Team

After battling to a deadlock at the end of three periods, the Delone Catholic High gridders yielded a touchdown in the final period and dropped a 20-13 decision to the big Westminster team Friday night at Westminster before 2,000 spectators.

The winning touchdown came on a end sweep from the six-yard line by Joe Shilling, Westminster halfback.

Coach Johnny McMahon's Squires put up a valiant battle against their Maryland opponents and twice held leads.

On the third play following the kickoff Delone scored on a play good for 75 yards. Dan Greenholt whipped a 25-yard aerial to Andy Brady on the Delone 45 from where the latter streaked over. Don Chrismer made the score 7-0 when he placed-kicked the point.

Later in the same period the Owls knotted the score the TD coming on another pass, Jim Head arching a 20-yard aerial to Bill Barrick in the end zone. Parry booted the point from placement to tie the score.

Squires Click Again
Again in the second quarter the Squires took the lead when Greenholt connected with another pass, this time to Chrismer, who raced 42 yards. The Delone try for the point failed.

Midway in the third quarter Westminster again tied the score, the touchdown coming on a screen pass from Head to Barrick which covered 20 yards.

Westminster capitalized on a recovered Delone fumble in the final period in Squire territory which paved the way for the winning tally.

The loss was the fourth in five outings for Delone and the triumph was the second in five games for Westminster.

Delone will next meet York Catholic at McSherrystown on Sunday, October 18.

FIVE MARKS FOR MARTIN
ATLANTA (AP)—Buck Martin, Georgia Tech's outstanding end of 1951 and 1952, holds five school pass receiving records. All were set in 1951. The marks are: Most touchdown passes received in one game (4); most touchdown passes received in one season (8); most passes received in one game (10); most passes received in one season (37); and most yards gained on passes received in one season (506).

SURROUNDED BY BUSHES
NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—Joe Bush, Notre Dame tackle, is the third member of his family to play football for the Fighting Irish. His brother Mike was an end on the 1944 squad. Brother Jack was a halfback on the 1949-50-51 teams. All of the Bush boys played for St. Ambrose Academy in Davenport, Ia., but the family now lives in Oak Park, Ill.

on the letter.

Hall met the O'Day woman in St. Louis. She was arrested here and is being held as a material witness.

Funeral services were held yesterday for little Bobby.

At about the same time Mrs. Heady and Hall made their first court appearance. They waived a hearing on a federal charge of extortion in connection with the $600,000 ransom.

Both face murder charges in St. Joseph and kidnap charges here.

Still Seeking Marsh
Still sought is Thomas Marsh, 37-year-old ex-convict, named by Hall as his accomplice in the kidnapping. Hall has blamed the slaying on the missing man, saying he turned Bobby over to him a short time from his school. But authorities have raised doubts that Marsh even was involved in the plot.

Still being closely checked is the station wagon in which Hall and Mrs. Heady drove to St. Joseph, Mo., after the kidnapping. The FBI declined to comment on what clues it might have discovered in the vehicle, which was found abandoned in north Kansas City.

Letter Unexplained
Still unexplained is a letter the St. Louis cab driver who led police to Hall said he and Sandy O'Day opened after Hall had told the woman to take it to California and mail it.

According to the cab driver, John Hager, the letter read: "Things not going as well as expected. May have to leave the country by ship or plane. Carl."

The FBI declined to comment.

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
BY FREDERICK C. RUSSELL
member S.A.E.

The high accident rate is partly due to too many drivers believing they can shift responsibility as easily as they shift gears.

From Minor To Major

Few automobile drivers stop to realize it but the serious things that happen on the highway have their small beginnings in minor infractions of the law in round-town driving. It is something which ought to have the attention of local police because if there were less contempt for local regulations fewer drivers would make those costly mistakes when they are out on the road driving at speeds which permit of no errors in judgment, no violations of the rules.

Recently while sitting at the wheel of my car in my home town I saw four drivers make U-turns where such movements of the car are not permitted. Two drivers made left turns in spite of a sign that prohibited it. One driver went through the red light because he wasn't paying attention. No one driver was caught. Nothing appeared to happen as a result of these infractions but down deep the habit of violating the law got a further hold. Later these drivers will find themselves trying to "get by" at places and under conditions where there's no chance of their succeeding. That's what makes the headlines.

Short Cut To Trouble

If, and when, you yield to the temptation to buy a cheap cartridge for the engine's oil filter don't be surprised if it doesn't do a good job. One of the common troubles with elements is defective packing of the material. This allows spaces through which oil can pass too quickly. Filter engineers term it "channeling." When oil takes this short cut it naturally ducks paths through which it would otherwise be properly filtered.

When to consider a rebore of the cylinders is just a matter of measurement. There's some difference of opinion among car makers, of course, as to just how much wear should be tolerated before reboring, but a general rule and one that seems to be reasonably safe is to figure that the engine should not show more than .0005 inch of taper or out-of-round. In all ring work it is highly important to consider wear on the ring grooves in the pistons themselves. Clearance between the side of a new ring and its groove should not be over .006 inch. Then there is the matter of ring end gap. This is roughly based on the cylinder bore. Cylinders that are 3 1/2 inches or less call for a ring gap of at least .007 inch. If the bore is between 3 9/16 and 4 inches the minimum gap should be .010 inch.

Mechanic Joe Speaking

"Back again to the season of year when we can expect a little headache now and again by way of getting the engine started I'd like to suggest a few of the things we do not always think to consider. One, for instance, is a broken fuel line. I found one the other day that was blocked.

"This would be a natural time to suspect that difficult starting is due to the sidement bowl of the fuel filter being clogged. Suspect a faulty choke, too, because this unit may not have been working normally for quite some weeks. A lot of hard starting is due merely to a leaky carburetor combined with a weak fuel pump."

He Went Into Reverse

When it became necessary to crank for longer than the normal period in order to start his car a friend of mine didn't fall into the trap of assuming that the choke wasn't fully closed. He suspected the reverse. A check-up showed that the choke valve didn't open up fully nor soon enough. Result was that the engine collected more carbon. Some of this was depositing on the spark plug electrodes. Dirty plugs always slow down the start.

Having engine oil work into the clutch normally discourages motorists from using additives in the crankcase because the fear is that the additives will encourage oil to work past the rear main bearing more freely. The chances are, however, that the reverse may be true if there is a pipe from the bearing's retainer to return excess oil to the crankcase. Sometimes this pipe becomes clogged with gummy deposits. Solvent action of additives may serve to open up this pipe and thus help check the tendency for oil to pass by the bearing into the flywheel clutch housing.

Keep Them In Mind

There's a comparatively simple way to tell if the water pump is working properly and that is to feel the upper radiator hose while Junior accelerates the engine. If the pump is on the job the hosing will swell right away.

Ever hear a buzzing sound in the clutch? This usually means that the clutch release spring has become unfastened. Ringing noises indicate that the clutch disc is loose, or worn.

When leakage develops at radiator or heater hosing always be modest with the tightening process. If you overdo it may actually aggravate a leak.

Check On Those Weights

When you hear a sharp rap under the car as if a tire had tossed up a stone remember to check over the rims later to see if one of the tire balance weights has tossed off. This occasionally happens. High speed, underinflation and rough roads combine to make it difficult for weights to stay put. Some owners make a note of how many weights are on each rim, and their positions. It saves a lot of guessing if there is a question as to whether one of them has come off.

How's That Equipment?

Looking over the spare equipment in my car recently I was a bit surprised to see how much of it needed replacing. There was a spare inner tube which had become quite dry from too much heat, not to mention a sandbag which had sprung a leak. Sand is handy not only for traction but for fighting a car fire, but a hole rotted in the bag isn't much help.

Several spark plugs had come out of their boxes in the tool kit and one of them looked like it had been through a war. The flashlight needed new batteries. I was surprised to note that to save rattling I had put the extension rod of the jack under the mat in the luggage compartment. Bet I would have forgotten where it was if I had had to change a tire on the road.

Checking the equipment also reminded me to add a few lengths of heavy cord, and a spool of wire. Hand in an emergency. Someone had also taken the scissors from the First Aid Kit.

What's Your Trouble?

Q. There is a peculiar thumping sound in my car when it is coasting slowly. I have had the universal joints checked but they are not worn. H. F. C.

A. I suspect that one of the wheel covers is not a good fit. A cover that snaps will make quite a noise.

Q. I find that I must pump on the accelerator pedal at least three times before the engine will start when cold. Does this mean that the float is empty and that the carburetor leaks when the car stands in the garage overnight? J. P.

A. Pumping on the pedal wouldn't be effective in helping the start if the carburetor were dry. You will find that the need for enriching the mixture by bringing the acceleration pump into action means that the choke system isn't working properly.

Q. Why doesn't the engine of my car start again after it has been heated up and switched off? I press down on the accelerator pedal as they tell me to. Wm. F., Jr.

A. I would check the throttle linkage on this car because when the accelerator pedal is down the throttle may not be fully open as it should be in order to admit the extra air needed for a hot re-start.

Q. There is a strange noise in the rear of my car in rainy weather. Sounds like a loose shock absorber but these have been carefully checked. K. H. G.

A. This indicates a loose rear spring. Water from the rain acts as a lubricant to aggravate the looseness temporarily.

Q. I have noticed lately that the engine of my car stumbles when idling. Have checked ig-

NEW WITNESSES TALK IN PROBE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two more witnesses "are talking" in Philadelphia's expanding probe of police graft, says Dist. Atty. Richardson Dilworth.

The district attorney said he could not identify the informants because "we have promised to protect them."

"When you identify them, you immediately lose a good witness," Dilworth said. "Each time witnesses are identified or scared, it knocks out the bottom and we have to start all over again."

Published reports said one witness has accused three policemen in the past. A friend tells me that this is due to a leaky diaphragm in the vacuum booster side of the fuel pump. Do you agree? J. J. McB.

A. I can hardly agree with this diagnosis because there is no booster pump on your car - just the simple fuel pump. However, your friend had in mind that there is air leaking into the intake. This leans out the mixture too much. Check for a leaky gasket around the manifold or for a crack in the manifold itself.

Q. If self-sealing inner tubes close up holes made by sharp objects why is it necessary to remove such objects from the tires? R. G.

A. Because if you do not remove them the inner tube may tear and bring on a sudden flat or a blowout. Of course, this would not apply to double inner tubes which operate on a different principle.

Q. I seem to have cleared up a miss in the engine of my car since changing the oil and flushing with kerosene. Since putting in the new oil, however, I find that it looks a bit dark. L. L. M.

A. The new oil probably contains detergents. These remove organic matter (gums, varnish etc.) and hold it in suspension. But don't flush the engine with kerosene.

Mr. Russell will answer questions regarding the safe care and operation of your car. Just address him at 254 Fern Street, West Hartford, 7, Conn., and enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope for a personal reply. There is no charge.

13 Injured When Bleachers Collapse

SHATTUCK, Okla. (AP)—The collapse of football stadium bleachers, blamed on teen-agers jumping up and down, injured 13 persons last night and halted the Woodward-Shattuck high school game. School officials blamed the accident on "a group of boys and girls jumping up and down."

"It could have been overcrowded a little bit too," said W. E. Gorley, Shattuck superintendent of schools. He said the bleachers that crashed to the ground were seven rows high and 60 yards long, seating some 800 fans. The game was resumed after the injured were taken to hospitals.

Anti-Freeze Week Begins On Monday

The newest or latest week set aside to commemorate some event is called "Anti-Freeze Week" scheduled for next week, to encourage car owners to install anti-freeze early to avoid a frozen motor or a "jam-up" at service stations and garages when a cold snap comes.

By making an appointment for early winterizing service, the car owner is assured of a thorough, careful winter safety inspection by his dealer. Also in preparing for winter driving now, it can be done when most convenient.

Gettysburg Autoparts Co., local distributor for "Zerone" and "Zerex," Du Pont's anti-freeze products, points out, "It's never too early to install anti-freeze, but it can be too late... too late if the engine is damaged by the first freeze-up simply because there was no anti-freeze in the cooling system."

When Ferris Fain, now with the White Sox, won the American League batting championship last year he became the 10th to win that loop's hitting honors twice or more times.

SEEK MAN FOR PIKE DEATHS; TEST REVOLVER

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania state police put a foreign-made pistol through a ballistics test today as law officers continue the hunt for a 25-year-old "highly dangerous" man sought in connection with the murder of two truckers on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

The German pistol was brought here for the tests after Cleveland Homicide Capt. David E. Kerr of Cleveland, Ohio, said firings there connected John Wesley Wable, described as a dark, thin-faced man, with the wounding of John K. Shepard, 34, while he slept in his truck near Lisbon, Ohio, last July.

Last night in Cleveland employees of an auto agency said a man who looked like Wable took out a car for a demonstration ride and failed to return. The man left behind a stolen car.

Prisoner Reports

The pistol and Wable are the center of an interlocked series of developments which pieced together looks like this:

In Uniontown, Pa., Dist. Atty. Fred L. Brothers quoted a prisoner, Charles R. Welch, 20, of Grindstone, Pa., as saying Wable told him when the two shared a jail cell recently:

"What would you think if I told you I had committed the turnpike killings? Well, I did, I killed two truckers in Pennsylvania and one in Ohio."

Same Pistol Used

Kerr, in Cleveland, said he was unable to tell if the pistol was the same used in the slayings of Harry F. Pitts, 39, of Bowling Green, Va., and Lester B. Woodward, 39, of Harrisburg, Pa. All of the shootings occurred within one week in July and in each case the truckers had pulled off the super highway for a nap.

Col. C. M. Wilhelm, Pennsylvania state police commissioner, said tests of bullets showed the same pistol was used in all three shootings.

Watch Started Hunt

The hunt for Wable started Friday after a pocket watch answering the description of one taken from Shepard was found in a pawn shop in Cleveland.

Kerr said Wable's 22-year-old girl friend told police the hunted man had the watch and pistol after the Lisbon shooting. Kerr said the pistol was given to the girl's stepfather, who turned it over to police.

Wable worked in Cleveland as a plant guard until last March and was later arrested on the Uniontown, Pa., charge of failing to return a rented car. He was released after making restitution.

YANKS UNLOAD FIRST ATOMIC GUN IN GERMANY

ADENAUER IS ELECTED AGAIN

BONN, Germany (AP)—Pro-American Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was elected to a second four-year term Friday by an overwhelming vote in the Bundestag, Parliam-ent's lower house.

The 77-year-old Christian Demo- crat received 304 of the 466 ballots cast. "No" votes came from 148 deputies and 14 put in blank bal- lots.

There was no debate.

The election cleared the way for the iron-willed old chancellor to press ahead with his plans for a German alliance with the free world, the unification of Europe and the restoration of German unity.

Four years ago he was elected chancellor by the margin of one vote—his own. Friday he received the largest vote of confidence ever granted to a Democratic German chancellor.

TRIPLE WEDDING

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Michael Korpaczewski gave away a son and two daughters in a triple wedding ceremony last night.
